CLUB OF THE YEAR

The information provided will be used to assess the Bowls North Harbour Club of the Year

Please respond to the questionnaire below to allow us to assess how your club is growing, your club's community involvement and how Bowls North Harbour may help to assist your club and our sport to grow.

1. How many new members does your club have this season? And in which membership category are these new members?
2. How would you rate your club's contribution towards assisting Bowls North Harbour and Bowls NZ with the running of events?
3. How many non-member participants does the club have in Twilight/Business House programs or other community projects?
4. What other community activities/initiatives are happening at the club?
5. What are the activities taken to increase participation and to attract new members?
6. What new game formats have been introduced?
7. What do you consider to be the successes that the club has achieved this last season?
8. What support is given to the talent development of players, coaches and umpires?
9. What are the club's goals for the next five years?
